Ezekiel 3:1-7

- 1 And he said to me, “Son of man, eat whatever you find here. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.”
- 2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me this scroll to eat.
- 3 And he said to me, “Son of man, feed your belly with this scroll that I give you and fill your stomach with it.” Then I ate it, and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey.
- 4 And he said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with my words to them.
- 5 For you are not sent to a people of foreign speech and a hard language, but to the house of Israel
- 6 not to many peoples of foreign speech and a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to such, they would listen to you.
- 7 But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me: because all the house of Israel have a hard forehead and a stubborn heart.

Exodus 34:28-35

- 28 So he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread nor drank water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.
- 29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God.
- 30 Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.
- 31 But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them.
- 32 Afterward all the people of Israel came near, and he commanded them all that the Lord had spoken with him in Mount Sinai.
- 33 And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.
- 34 Whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would remove the veil, until he came out. And when he came out and told the people of Israel what he was commanded,
- 35 the people of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face was shining. And Moses would put the veil over his face again, until he went in to speak with him.
